

Residentials

InfoBuzz has a credible history of providing structured and activity based residential work for groups of young people where identified need may best be addressed by getting them away to focus on the issues affecting their lives.

In the past we have run residentials that have benefitted young people who are encountering problems in the following areas of their lives:

- Excessive cannabis use
- Domestic violence
- Sexual health and personal safety
- Youth Offending
- Alcohol and binge drinking

PROJECT WORK

Target Group	Variable - to be discussed on contact
Group Size	Negotiable
Outcomes	Outcomes to be negotiated, according to need and participants, when programme is booked .
Format	Structured group work sessions One-to-one support. Continuing work after the event
Key Skills	Residentials are usually run with activities included to a encourage a team work approach to solving problems and bonding thus providing an ideal opportunity to address specific issues of concern.
Duration/time	From a long weekend to a full week. One day activities can be offered as part of a specific piece of work that may be being undertaken at your school, youth or community centre.
Required Environment	Conducted in a range of settings. InfoBuzz has experience with , and access to, many of the county's exciting and interactive centres as well as being able to go further afield to accommodate specific identified needs.
Evaluation Method	Evaluated and monitored in a variety of ways to ensure each young person receives the response appropriate to their needs

If you wish to involve InfoBuzz in facilitating a group residential, please ring the office to arrange an initial consultation around identified need, outcomes and the most appropriate placement.

InfoBuzz will endeavour to source funding to support any initiative but also relies on a level of funding to be provided by the commissioner.
