

Legal Highs

Programme session to consider the context and nature of non-classified substances that are, in principle, available within the law.

Target Group	Young people 13-16
Group Size	6 - 25
Outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understand the law in relation to “legal highs” • Increased knowledge of these substances; in particular their comparison with classified drugs. • Increased understanding of the risks associated with these substances. • Considered the difference between “safe” & “legal”.
Format	PowerPoint Presentation Group Discussion Flip chart Small group work
Key Skills	Talking and Listening Communication Working with others Information-processing skills Reasoning skills Evaluation skills
Duration/time	50 mins
Required environment	Projector and screen. For small groups, table & flip chart.
Evaluation Method	Young person feedback. Staff observation. Evaluation form

